Chalet Sainte Appolonne has been designed to provide luxurious catered accommodation for six to eight people. From its comfortable bedrooms, to its magnificent sitting room with roaring log fire, no detail has been overlooked.

After a hard day on the piste you can return, take a sauna and then enjoy your 5 star gourmet meal before relaxing in front of the fire.

A chauffeured nine-seater vehicle is provided for your exclusive use. Many other services like massage and baby sitting can be provided to ensure that your stay is unforgettable.

Méribel is the central valley within the " Trois valleés " lift system in the French Alps. The three valleys which includes Méribel, Courchevel, Val-Thorens & Les Menuires; is the world's largest ski area with over 200 ski lifts and 600 kms of pisted runs.

Les Allues Méribel, where the chalet is located, provides a more relaxed alternative to the bustling Méribel. Its medieval buildings and streets providing a perfect backdrop to the chalet.

There is a choice of four restaurants and there is even a small supermarket, a card and newspaper shop, post office and ski hire shop.

Travel to the main ski lifts takes ten minutes by car, or twenty minutes by cable car.

A free shuttle bus operates between Les Allues Méribel and Méribel Les Allues. There is also a pisted ski run down to Les Allues when conditions permit.
